My dear Stan:

I am delighted that you and Mrs. Turner will be able to attend the annual Winter Dinner of the Gridiron Club on Saturday, December 10, at the Capital Hilton Hotel.

You will be seated at the head table. The Reception begins at 6 p.m., with Dinner promptly at 7 p.m. in the South American Room. Black Tie.

A word about the evening's festivities. The men and women of the Gridiron Chorus will be directing their musical wit at personalities and issues in the Intelligence/Investigative communities of the government. While remaining as secretive as I can about the details, I should warn or advise that you will figure prominently in one or more of the parodies!

However, at the proper time, I will call on you to respond briefly by defending your record, throwing yourself on the mercies of the Club, or by casting suitable aspersions at others. In keeping with tradition, you should come prepared with a light-hearted response of five or six minutes duration. It is a Gridiron rule that while ladies are always present, reporters are never present. All remarks are off the record.

We look forward to your presence and a relaxing evening of fun and fellowship in the glow of the Gridiron. If I can be of further assistance, please call.

Sincerely,

Jerry terHorst
President
The Gridiron Club
